Those were the times of smiting of avenging; but under the New Testament dispensation the world knows the Creator as a God of Love, who is never in the pose and treatment striking. ment dispensation the world knows the Creator as a God of Love, who is never deaf to petitions offered humbly and confidently in the name of Christ. Emphasis was laid upon the compretensiveness of God's promise, "If ye shall ask anything;" yet this presuppores petitions in the true spirit of the Saviour, who enjoined humility and self-denial, not prayers actuated by worldly and selfish motives.

BEAUTIFUL OIL PAINTINGS GIVEN ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH. nonymous Donors Provide Pictures o St. Patrick and of the Sacred Heart for the Sacristy.

"If ye shall ask anything in My name, that will I do," John xiv. 14 in the sacristy of St. Patrick's church was the text from which Rev. Myles P. Galvin preached a convincing sermon on Prayer at the high mass in St. Fatrick's church Sunday. The Old Testament abounds in instances of the compelling power of prayer in overcoming God's anger. Moses, David, Isaiah, Daniel, and many others furnish us with proof of the effect of prayer.

Saturday afternoon there were hung in the sacristy of St. Patrick's church two beautiful oil paintings, gifts of members of the parish who do not wish their names revealed. YANTIC RECTOR SPOKE AT Y. M. C. A. MEETING Rev. J. W. Areson Says We Need to Make Room for Christ.

A very helpful and interesting service was held under Y. M. C. A. auspices Sunday afternoon at 3.36 in the Thayer building. Rev. J. W. Areson, rector of Grace Episcopal church, was the speaker, and his address was heard with a great deal of pleasure. He selected for the basis of his thought the passage of scripture recorded in connection with the birth of Christ, "There was no room for them in the inn." While hese words; said the speaker, were recorded of Mary and Joseph, the facts were that there was no room for the child who was to be born. Jerusalem was a most beautiful city, and within it was a temple of rare attractiveness; it was built A very helpful and interesting of rare attractiveness; it was built for the King of Kings, and yet when he went there, to a very great extent there was no room for Him; it has always been so, and whatever we may say about the cause of the terrible conflict in Europe, the bottom cause conflict in Europe, the bottom cause is that there has been comparatively little room for the Christ in some of those countries. The universities, the colleges and the books of the nations most responsible for the awful war have had no room for Christ; they have crowded Him out.

In our own land He is also crowded out in some augusters in many of the

we need to make room for Christ in every department of our lives; in our mental part, we must give Him more room than He has had; in our physical part we must make room for Him, if we would be clean, and certainly we must enthrone Him in our spiritual lives if we would develop our route. It is possible for us to go to souls. It is possible for us to go to church and take regular part in the services, and yet to keep Him out of our lives. Let us is this thee fold way give Him large room, and then we will glorify Him in our daily living.
